As the deer pants for streams of water, so my soul pants for you, O God. Psalm 42:1

Hope

The disciples were discouraged and defeated as they watched Jesus slowly die on the cross of Palm Sunday. Their hopes and dreams were shattered. In the midst of their hopelessness God did the impossible on Easter Sunday--He raised Jesus from the dead.

The message of Easter is hope. The God who raised Jesus from the dead can resurrect shattered marriages and broken homes. Nothing is ever hopeless because all things are possible for God. The same God who raised Jesus from the dead still performs great miracles today.

Pastor John Peterson

SHAVINGS FROM THE BOARD

Your church board did not meet in February.

"I Am" Summer Camps

It is time to begin planning for the summer camps at Covenant Cedars. The theme this summer continues with the "I Am" theme. Early registration – for the largest discount – is due before April 1.

RUSS' RAMBLINGS

Have you ever attended a Conference annual meeting? I had the privilege to represent our congregation at last year's meeting. It is always a pleasure and an informative time to attend one of these meetings. Would you like to represent Faith Covenant at this year's meeting? It will be held right here in the Omaha area so it is convenient. There is a workshop on Friday afternoon, a banquet and time of worship Friday night, and the actual meeting on Saturday. If you think you might be interested, contact Chairman Dot Wenke soon. At the quarterly meeting she was given authority to appoint delegates for us this year. (We are authorized two delegates plus Pastor John, as well as two alternates.)
