Turkeys and More

Open Door Mission is looking for people to help during the holidays. They need people to prepare bags of groceries and deliver them the Saturday before Thanksgiving as well as help serving their Thanksgiving meal. They also will have multiple opportunities to help prepare for Christmas. If you are interested, check out their web site at <http://www.opendoormission.org/howtohelp.html> .

Annual Meeting

Our annual meeting will be Sunday after worship. Before the meeting, the youth will provide a meal with free-will offering to raise funds for CHIC. Please plan to attend both the meal and the annual meeting. (Last Sunday the Trustees presented the proposed budget for next year.)

Veteran's Day

Today is a special holiday to remember our veterans and appreciate what they have done. Many have given their time and even their lives over the decades so we can continue to live in this great country. Brave men and women are currently serving all around the world to protect us from terrorists. Remember them in your prayers.

Sunday during worship, we had the pleasure of viewing a presentation that honored our veterans, current and past. As I sat there and watched, I realized that most of them are no longer with us. There are quite a few of us in the congregation who are veterans, probably a larger percentage than in the general population of this country. How many can you name? (Thank you, Linda, for your excellent presentation.)
